MEMORANDUM TO: Colonel White

SUBJECT : Logistics Office Objectives Review, Third Quarter,
Fiscal Year 1954

1. The objectives review for the Fiscal Year 1954 indicates the Logistics Office is making significant progress towards its program objectives and its goal. This progress is particularly apparent in connection with:

A. Career service, job requirements, job standards and training.

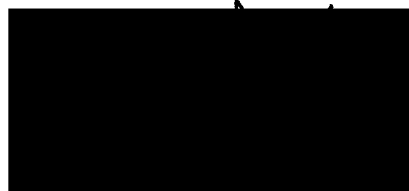

B. Field supply procedures including regulations.

C. Agency construction program.

D. Agency war planning and major base concept.

E. Streamlining of headquarters procedures and flow of documents.

2. In addition, the third-quarter review indicates certain functions previously performed by the General Services Office have been absorbed into the functions of the Logistics Office and steps are being taken to implement and improve this type of support.
